"The best way to get rid of a bad law is to enforce it."—General Grant.

Therefore THE LEDGER favors the rigid enforcement of the Civil Service Law.

The time has arrived for plain talk; and THE LEDGER proposes, from now on, to indulge somewhat in that line. Now's the time to subscribe!

The Courier-Journal, which made a valiant fight against the Free-silverites, has thrown up both hands and gone into the new-fangled Democratic fold.

The "Advance Agent of Prosperity" must have been lavish with his favors to the "Bums" during the recent local canvass, judging from the red noses and new shoes one sees on the streets.

THERE hasn't been a day or an hour during the last two years when the Republicans of Mason county had a legally-constituted Executive Committee. There is no such thing at this time. If the "rank and file" are wise they will see that this condition is changed, and at once.

A DISPATCH from this city to THE Lexington Leader says a certain candidate was betrayed by a County Committee-man. Surely no member of the Mason County Republican Executive Committee would betray a regularly nominated Republican candidate! There must be some mistake about this!

THERE'LL be no Republican(?) "bolters" at Frankfort this winter, and no "unseemly" for them. The setting aside of the "Bosser" who built up the party and led it to victory two years ago has thrown the Republican organization of Kentucky into a most pronounced state of "innocuous desuetude."

ALREADY the Free-silverites talk of demanding the resignation of Senator LINSLEY, that the next Legislature may elect JOE BLACKBURN in his stead. They've got a good round majority of their own this time, and it will not be necessary for Colonel CHINN and his lieutenants to take Republican Senators into their confidence—and rooms—to "arrange" matters.

THAT element of the Republican party in Mason county that has been fighting the gentlemen whom it has seen fit to call "Bosses" had its inning at the polls last Tuesday—and there isn't a single Republican county official left to tell the tale! "The management of the so-called 'Bosses' placed five in office three years ago. Isn't it about time for the sensible Republicans of the county to call a halt?"

At a Republican Convention held in the Courthouse a year or so since, the "Bosses" were publicly notified that they were not wanted—that the Party was to be run by new hands. Of course the "Bosses" were only too glad to be relieved of the burden they had borne for more than a quarter of a century without ever deriving any personal benefit therefrom—but have you read the sequel in the returns from last Tuesday's election? Isn't it about time for the Party to "get together" and see that the new "Managers" render an account of their stewardship?

The Ensign Manufacturing Company of Huntington has received an order for building five hundred boxes for the N. and W. Railway Company. They will keep a large force of men at work for the winter. And yet there are people who say there isn't any more prosperity than there was a year ago.

In summing up the causes that led to Mr. SHACKLEFORD's triumphant election Tuesday THE Lexington Herald, among other things, says—

"The factional fights in the ranks of the Republican party and the open slight put upon Governor BRADLEY also aided Mr. SHACKLEFORD; and THE Herald has no authority from Governor BRADLEY to express any very deep sorrow at the defeat of Mr. BAILEY."

Maybe, when the Republicans get through "experimenting" with new "leaders," and after the rank and file are completely demoralized, the old wheelhorses will be recalled to reorganize the party and pull it out of the mire. That was the plan upon which the Army of the Potomac was managed during the years 1862-4. It made fun for the enemy, but it was a little rough on the boys who were killed and wounded during the reign of the incompetents.

Bargain Days at Hoedrich's. Special-Underwear and Blankets.

Major A. Pugh was Tuesday elected Joseph of Vanceburg and A. H. Holderness Joseph of Paducah.

J. C. Moneyhon of Bracken and Miss Kate McCreary of Batavia, O., were married at that place Wednesday.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Central Presbyterian Church will meet with Mrs. John Poyntz Monday afternoon.

If you want your share of the fall and early winter trade, an advertisement in THE LEDGER will be your best solicitor. Try it and see.

HUNTINGHALBERT

The Man Who Is Supposed to Have Assassinated Captain Hoobler.

THE EVIDENCE AGAINST HIM.

What was at first surmised is now thought to be a certainty. The late Captain T. B. Hoobler of Vanceburg and Henry D. Halbert some time ago had some business transactions.

In some way there was a disagreement as to the division of the money, and Captain Hoobler thought he got the worst of it.

Shortly after this Halbert married a most estimable lady of Vanceburg, and she came Miss Alice Armstrong, residing in Cincinnati and to whom Halbert had been quite attentive, with a breach-of-promise suit against him for the sum of $50,000.

This case has been pending in the Cincinnati Courts for about a year, and among other phases of it was the attachment by Miss Armstrong of some $2,500 belonging to Halbert, which was on deposit in one of the Cincinnati Banks.

It is said that Halbert charged Captain Hoobler with telling Miss Armstrong where this money was, thus enabling her to attach it.

Further, it is alleged that Halbert had been heard to threaten vengeance on Hoobler for his interference in this case. The above circumstances are given as connecting Halbert with the cruel assassination of Captain Hoobler at his home in Vanceburg on Tuesday evening, details of which have been printed in THE LEDGER.

Miss Lenora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Clarke, died near Lewisburg, aged 16. Mr. W. D. Fraser of Cynthia and Miss Jane Bradford of Augusta will marry in Cincinnati tomorrow.

A nine-year-old daughter of Mr. John Danahoe of Augusta died of diphtheria and her remains were interred at Washington.

Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Walsh have returned to Danville, Mrs. Walsh having been seriously ill with heart trouble during their stay at Colorado Springs.

The parties who stoned the C. and O. passenger at Dayton a few days ago have been captured. They proved to be Willie Baciorek, aged 10, and his younger brother.

Messrs. Charles R. Pearson, Jr., and John Duley, Assignees of J. Greenstein, elsewhere give notice to creditors in presenting claims against the assigned estate.

Y. M. C. A. MATTERS.

What the Local Association is Doing For the City's Young Men.

The opening Gospel Rally for boys will be held in the Association Parlor tomorrow at 2 p. m. and will last but one-half hour. There will be an abundance of good singing and a brief talk of the boy who had the five loaves and twelve fishes and which Jesus used in feeding the multitude. All the boys of Maysville are invited to attend this service.

A piano solo by Miss Jennie Moore will be one of the interesting events of the Men's Rally, which will be held at 3 p. m. tomorrow in the Association Parlor.

Hearty singing and an address by Rev. J. S. Hays, D.D., will serve to make this a very pleasing service indeed. The subject will be "Loyalty to the Book." That subject interests every person, and the young men especially should hear Dr. Hays deliver this stirring loyalty address.

The first gymnasium class for the boys will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

KENTUCKY NEWS.

The Latest News From All Parts of the Commonwealth.

DR. HUNTER.

Will probably go to Staunton and leave the Democratic the Town.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 6.—Tuesday's election, it is said, removes at least two prominent figures from the race for the senatorship. Senator Lindsay, prior to the election, it is said, anticipated the defeat of candidates favorable to him, and intimated to his friends that he will not be a candidate. The overwhelming democratic majority in the state senate also practically precludes the election of a republican, and Dr. Hunter, it is now believed, will accept the Guatemalan mission, leaving the fight between ex-Senator Blackburn, Congressman John S. Rhea and probably ex-Gov. Brown, ex-Congressman Ellis and others.

OHIO LOVERS WILL WAG.
REBELSVILLE, Ky., Nov. 6.—J. W. Chandler, of Buckeye, aged 78 years, took out a license Friday to marry Nancy Richer, 40 years old. The aged couple have known each other and lived neighbors since childhood. They were sweethearts in years long gone by and were separated by a quarrel and took other mates, now dead. After more than 50 long years of waiting the story happily culminates.

Gold in the Streets.
HORSE CAYE, Ky., Nov. 6.—While walking on the streets of this city some hands discovered what is thought to be gold. None of it has been ascertained yet, but experienced men say it is certainly the right stuff. The man who hauled the rock in which the ore was found refused to tell from whence it came. Everybody is now looking for gold.

Mrs. Deakin Not Dead.
FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 6.—It turns out that the report of Mrs. Deakin's death was a canard. PENSION REPORT.

Added to the Rolls During the Year, 54,072 Names.

Losses by Death and Otherwise During the Same Period, 41,132.

Whole Number of Pensioners on June 30, 1904.—Net Gain Over Previous Year, 5,939.—Amount Disbursed During Year, $139,759,442.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The first annual report of Commissioner of Pensions H. Clay Evans to the secretary of War, was made public Friday.

A summary follows: There were added to the rolls during the year the names of 54,072 new pensioners, and there were restored to rolls 3,971 pensioners who had been previously dropped, a total of 54,073.

During the year 1904, 41,132 pensioners died, 3,960 by death, 14,074 by remarriage of widows and mothers, 1,833 by legal limitation (minors), 1,833 for failure to file claims, and 1,492 for other causes, and 3,550 for other causes, an aggregate of 41,132.

The whole number of pensioners on the rolls June 30, 1904, was 979,014. The net gain over the previous year was 5,939. It will thus be seen that the pension roll has not yet begun to show any diminution, though it has been anticipated by my predecessors in office that such would be the fact. Seven widows of revolutionary soldiers and nine daughters of revolutionary soldiers are still on the rolls.

During the year 1904 pension certificates were issued, of which number 50,010 were original allowances and the balance were releases, increases, restorations of revolutionary soldiers and 14,071 certificates of various classes were held in this bureau until July 1, 1897, and are included in the roll added to the past fiscal year. During the same period 70,324 claims of various classes were disallowed. This number, however, does not include those which were made for higher rates of pension.

The amount disbursed for pensions during the year 1904 was $139,759,442, and the amount disbursed by treasury settlement was $130,475,323, a total of $139,494,715.33.

During the fiscal year 1890 by the sum of $1,854,480.18. If the 14,071 certificates which, as before stated, were added in this bureau until July 1, 1897, had been mailed to the pension agents during the fiscal year, they would have required $1,854,480.18.

The average annual value of each pension is $12,091.64, besides the additional annual value, which would also have been a charge upon the appropriation.

This amount, added to that actually disbursed, makes an aggregate of $141,909,698. The appropriation for the payment of pensions for the fiscal year 1

TRAINED ARTILLERYMEN

For the Proper Manning of Our Coast Defenses.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The New York chamber of commerce has adopted the following resolutions: "Whereas, The United States is now constructing modern coast defenses, to include over 300 high-power guns, 1,000 12-inch mortars and 300 rapid-firing guns, to be grouped at over 110 different points in the United States, and has made appropriation for over 350 high-power guns and about the same number of 12-inch mortars, of which one-half can be in their placements by June, 1898; and

Whereas, the present United States artillery force is wholly inadequate in number to care for and properly man these guns in their placements, or to be properly organized into a defense system, or to furnish a nucleus of instructed artillerymen for the proper manning of these defenses in case of war; therefore be it resolved that we, the chamber of commerce of the city of New York, being fully impressed with the urgent need of an increase in number of the federal artillery force, to properly insure the vast amount of property of our city and other sea coast cities against destruction by the enemy, do hereby contribute to the war with foreign nations, do earnestly request and urge the president and congress of the United States to take such immediate action as will provide a force of trained artillerymen for the proper manning of our coast defenses, and it is believed by us that 110 coast batteries, requiring a numerical increase of the army of about 4,000 artillerymen, is absolutely necessary to accomplish these purposes."

We always wish work at this station as rapidly as we can, and we are doing our best to have nothing to do with our industry."

"An officer attached to the office of the navy department, who is here representing the navy department, has added that he believed some report of an order had been received to prepare the vessels for sea service, and that which are at the yard making preparations for their final trial under the board of inspection. MAXIMO GOMEZ

Will Not Accept Autonomy as a Basis of Settlement.

The Insurgents Will Continue to Fight Until Independence is Won.

Independence or Death Has Been and Is Their Motto—Only the Farmer Will Put an End to War in Cuba, say Many Cuban Leaders.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Herald prints the following letter from Maximo Gomez, general-in-chief of the Cuban army of liberation, dated at his camp in Sancti Spiritus: "The enemies of Cuba have directed in the United States the rumor that I am disposed to accept autonomy as a basis of settlement or solution of the present war. The constitution of Cuba absolutely establishes that peace is negotiated upon the basis of absolute independence of Cuba. It is to obtain independence that we have been fighting two years and will continue to fight until victory be ours."

"All statements that have been hitherto or may be in the future published to the effect that we are willing to accept any other solution short of independence should be regarded as false. 'We will fight for absolute independence,' as we stated in the manifesto issued at Monte Cristo, also it was later set down in our constitution, and we are daily confirming it by the shedding of our blood on the battlefields."

Salvador Cisneros, former president of the republic of Cuba, writes to the Herald:

"Independence or death has been and is our motto. We would rather see our beloved country disappear in a heap of ashes than accept any concessions, no matter how ample, unless they carry with them the absolute independence of Cuba. To obtain this many of Cuba's best sons have given up their lives; to obtain this many more of her sons are daily shedding their blood, which, absorbed in the plants of our soil, we breathe in the air we inhale."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Herald says: It is too late to talk of autonomy. Cuba is lost to Spain. Only independence for the island will put an end to the struggle now devastating the colony and ruining Spain.

"What is the right leading Cubans—all of whom have been in the United States—told Senor Jose Canalejas in the Fifth Avenue hotel. These Cubans did not represent the junta for the junta will discontinue with no one, but the conference is the more remarkable in its result, because the men who talked so firmly against autonomy, and who were formerly leading autonomists, who, in view of recent developments, were inclined to accept independence, such a proposal the insurgents in the field would simply scoff at, as an evidence, not of Spain's good faith, but of her weakness and willingness to promise concessions rather than prosecute a hopeless war."

Senor Canalejas was formerly a member of the Spanish cabinet and is the proprietor of the Madrid Herald. He comes to sound American feeling and indignation against the present servation of the state of affairs in Cuba.
